

School of Natural Sciences
Classroom Teaching Course Equivalencies for Lecturers

Description of Instructional Offering	Value
----------------------------------------------	--------------

I. Instructional Workload Course, TIE category “T”

- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| A. Regularly scheduled course with three (3) hours of lecture per week.
The instructor delivers at least 85% of the course lectures. | 1.0 |
| B. Regularly scheduled course with two (2) hours of lecture per week.
The instructor delivers at least 85% of the course lectures. | 0.75 |
| C. Regularly scheduled course with one (1) hour of lecture per week.
The instructor delivers at least 85% of the course lectures. | 0.5 |
| D. Laboratory Lecture or laboratory organization for Regularly Scheduled course.
The instructor delivers at least 85% of the course lectures. | 0.25 |
| E. Precalculus, Math 5 a scripted course enrolled to a maximum of 30 | 0.5 |

II. Course Equivalencies (Values expressed in terms proportionate to a “T” course)

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| A. Lecturer delivers up to three (3) hrs supplementary activity every week. | 0.5 |
| B. Lecturer delivers four (4) to six (6) hrs supplementary activity every week. | 0.75 |

III. Other Equivalencies

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| A. Courses taught by multiple instructors (lecturers and faculty) receive the standard course equivalency with the effort distributed equally between the course Instructors unless otherwise agreed upon by the Dean. | |
| B. Grading lab books and exams associated with assignment in sections: | 0.25 |
| C. New course development may earn an equivalency of:
Effort will be determined by the Dean and appropriate committee. | 1.0 |
| D. Extra effort as determined by the Dean and/or appropriate committee | |